

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

DATA LEGAL ADVISORS helps clients understand and maneuver through the complexities of the state and local procurement process.

The prior working experience with a wide range of government agencies provides our team with a high degree of skill and technical proficiency on the entire procurement process—from contract formation and administration to contract performance and dispute resolution.

DATA LEGAL ADVISORS also helps clients navigate the unique statutory and regulatory constraints and other challenges confronting firms selling to government customers.

What we do:

- Represent clients disputing substantial claims by and against the government
- Prosecute and defend court actions between contractors.
- Permit and licensing matters
- Assignment of Contracts
- Claims for termination for convenience and changes
