

PRIVACY AND DATA SECURITY

Our team assists at every step for regulatory compliance and implementation in order to help clients to mitigate risks by staying up-to-date with data security laws and regulations, and by advising on best in order to legally collecting, sharing and protecting information. DATA LEGAL ADVISORS helps clients in the adoption of policies, practices, and systems for maintaining the privacy of sensitive information as defined by different statutes.

What we do:

- Data privacy and security assessment and preparedness
- Data breach investigation and response
- Represent clients in response to data breach litigation and regulatory enforcement
- Represent clients in response to governmental and regulatory agency interactions
- Data privacy and security policies
- Cross-border data transfers and data protection
- Compliance policies and procedures
- Employee training